

CHANGE IN PLANS OF HUDSON TERMINAL

Jersey City Terminal to Be Plaza
Six Blocks Long—Saving
Of $500,000.

A change in plan has been decided upon by the New York and New Jersey Tunnel Commissioners. Instead of the exit of the north tunnel in Jersey City being at 14th Street it will be at 12th Street, adjoining the other tunnel. There will be a plaza six blocks long, from 125 to 200 feet wide. The cutting out of the curve of the north tunnel will save about $500,000. This, added to $443,000 which the Erie Road has agreed to pay for the closing of 11th Street, it is estimated, will about take care of the cost of the plaza.

A letter found in Dunn's room, addressed to his mother, Mrs. Kate Dunn of No. 145 West 16th Street, read: "Dear Mother—You won't see me any more. You won't have to worry about me. You have enough to worry about as it is. Please be sure and let Michael Shanley see me."

"Your son 'FRANK'."
